LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. Mr. Erb preached at the Christian Church on Sunday night last.

Mrs. W. T. Eklar, wife of the Methodist minister at this place, has been quite ill.

Rev. W. W. Manker, the mill man of Martown, was in town Monday and gave us a pleasant call.

Gay Randy informs us that Wiley Reid's wife, of Bager, is in the last stages of consumption.

Miss Laura Demaree arrived in town this morning with a full line of Millinery goods. She will remain ten days.

Bob Rose, of Red River, sold J. T. & F. Day ten head of cattle Monday, and bought a bill of goods for his store.

Major W. H. Taulbee was in town Saturday, and expressed himself as highly pleased with the Democratic State ticket.

Hon. Reuben Patrick, of Salyersville, passed through town Monday on route to the Republican State convention at Louisville.

Judge G. B. Swango, writing to his family from Hot Springs, Ark., a few days since says he is improving in health all the time.

Uncle Joe Clark was home from Ezel Saturday and Sunday, and informs us that the measles-stricken citizens have about all recovered.

Hon. W. O. Mize of this place, and E. B. Caldwell of Jackson, attended the convention at Louisville last Wednesday as delegates.

Albert Fitz, of Lexington, is a guest of the Pieratt House, and is casting about for lumber. He will probably remain with us for some time.

Parties having real estate to dispose of will do well to place it in the hands of Cooper & Back, if they want to sell it readily and at good prices.

A new set of town officers were elected last Saturday, and it is to be hoped that our streets will at once be improved and existing nuisances abated.

The republican convention to nominate a candidate for State Senator in this district has been called to meet at Hazel Green on Saturday June 18th.

The enterprising citizens of Hazel Green and vicinity made up a purse to restore the bridge across Red River, and awarded the contract to W. J. Wallace.

Uncle Pres. Trimble is anxious to see some enterprising man burn a brick kiln here, and says he will put in fifty or a hundred cords of wood at a nominal price.

John Patrick, Wm. Allen and Gay Randy, of Magoffin county, brought down and sold J. T. & F. Day a lot of cattle last Monday, and while here purchased a bill of goods each.

Rev. H. L. Nave, of the Mt. Sterling Presbyterian Church, and president of this district in the Sunday School Union, preached in the Christian Church at this place last Wednesday night.

Our John Tom was defeated for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, but he should see the Courier-Journal for damages for publishing the horrible picture it did and placing his name beneath it.

The new town officers elected last Saturday, are: H. C. Herndon, Police Judge. The trustees are: J. T. Day, Wm. Lusk, W. T. Caskey and Spencer Cooper. H. F. Pieratt was elected marshal without opposition.

Charley Howe the handsome young unmarried-but-wants-to-be traveling man of Trimble Bros., Mt. Sterling, registered at the Day House last Monday and treated our merchants to a sample lot of his chin music.

R. B. Kash of Gillmore Creek last year raised a rooster which has three legs and a most well developed bird. The third leg comes out from the right thigh, and though thoroughly developed, is of no utility.

Do not buy a sewing machine or organ until you have a talk with us. That is, if you want to save money. We are told that "a word to the wise is sufficient," and we shall see how many are discreet enough to heed the warning.

Hon. R. M. Pieratt of Ezel, Democratic candidate for the State Senate from this district, was in town a short time last Saturday, and called to see us. He was en route to Breathitt and Lee counties, in the interest of the canvass he is making.

We this week place the Democratic State ticket at the head of our column, and after next week will plant the Republican State ticket there also. Then the people of this country can pay their subscriptions to THE HERALD, and take their choice of tickets.

Col. R. J. Samuel arrived in Hazel Green on Monday evening and stopped at the Day House. He is here in the interest of the Cincinnati and Southeastern, and is having some reams of coal "faced up." He will have a few sections shipped for exhibition.

In company with Wm. Lusk, a distinguished citizen of Lacy Creek, and Floyd Day of this place, a HERALD scribe on Sunday visited the place to be opened by J. T. & F. Day. It will be a beautiful place when fixed up, and the water is certainly a very strong chalybeate.

Now that investigation of this country is being pursued with a view to penetrating it with railroads, THE HERALD would like to chronicle the discovery of all veins of coal, iron ore, quartz-bearing rock, &c., and asks that a report be furnished for that purpose. We can only induce railroads to come to us by proving that we have more of these things than other sections, and there is no better way to do this than by publishing the facts in your county paper. By this means you reach every State in the Union, and through other papers that copy such items, reach every locality in those States.

All good husbands love their good wives, and not alone love them but they do everything possible for their pleasure, even to buying them the handsomest bonnets in the world. If this little notice should strike the eye of such a man, he is respectfully requested to call at Mrs. Kate O. Clark's, Mt. Sterling, and buy his wife a bonnet. The advantages of buying from her are many. She sells a finer article, for less money, than any other house can show. She has a lady trimmer who has been pronounced the finest in the State. Call and let her in the grand display when you go down to Mt. Sterling.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

According to previous announcement the second annual meeting of the Wolfe County Sunday School Union convened at Camp on Thursday May 5th, 1887, at 10 o'clock A. M., Rev. H. L. Nave, of Mt. Sterling, presiding. After devotional services at the opening of each session the following program was carried out:

Session 1.—The object of Sunday School Conventions, Rev. H. L. Nave.

The report of the schools in the county was read which showed six schools in operation with a total of 375 scholars, teachers and officers enrolled.

The importance and benefits of Sunday Schools, Rev. A. P. Jones.

AFRERNOSSESSION—How to Obtain Attendance Sunday Schools, Rev. J. T. Pieratt and Rev. D. G. B. Demaree.

The use and abuse of Lesson Helps, H. C. Herndon, S. X. Swinn, David Hogg, Rev. D. G. B. Demaree and Rev. H. L. Nave.

What Parents Should do for Sunday Schools, Hon. C. M. Hanks.

Session 2.—Early Sunday Schools, J. E. Smalley.

The duty of Superintendents and Teachers, Rev. A. P. Jones, Z. T. Hurst and A. F. Byrd.

The following delegates were appointed to attend the District Institute to be held at Mt. Sterling the last week in May: Rev. A. P. Jones, Prof. A. F. Erb, H. C. Herndon, W. O. Mize, Rev. J. T. Pieratt, G. T. Center and Rev. D. G. B. Demaree.

After singing "Till We Meet Again" the benediction was pronounced by the president and the convention adjourned.

NOTES.

As many of the country schools are not open through the winter our county did not make as good a showing as it would had the convention been held later.

The Campion Sunday School has four officers, seven teachers and one hundred scholars enrolled, and is the largest school in the county.

The singing was splendid. Mrs. Ella Hall presided at the organ and rendered excellent music.

S. S. Combs being very hoarse was excused from taking part in the exercises.

Although the crowd in attendance was not large the exercises were of great interest and the convention was a success.

The paper, "Early Sunday Schools," by J. E. Smalley, was read and well received.

Z. T. Hurst made a startling discovery—a sanctified lawyer.

Hon. C. M. Hanks gave a very interesting account of the first Sunday schools in the mountains.

"Lord" Brittain Again.

W. H. Brittain, who was sent to the penitentiary from the Wolfe Circuit Court on Monday, May 2nd, 1887, has just served out his two years' term. He served most of his time at Eddyville. The Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal writes that Brittain will go back to Wolfe county and present, as he said, a number of men who were placed on the witness list in his case without really having been summoned to court or in attendance to testify in the court.

LATER.

"Lord" Brittain called on his Monday, having come home to join his wife. He said he would not go back to the penitentiary in a few days. He says Spencer Cooper has "got to eat" every word published in THE HERALD referring to his (Brittain's) better half, or said he "will stick to the penitentiary until he gets out of the penitentiary." Brittain will go back to Wolfe county and present, as he said, a number of men who were placed on the witness list in his case without really having been summoned to court or in attendance to testify in the court.

THE CHARLESTON, KENTUCKY AND WESTERN RAILROAD.

Mr. J. S. Spaulding has returned after a week's absence in the counties of Menefee, Wolfe, Magoffin, and Morgan looking over the proposed line of the Charleston, Kentucky and Western Railroad and in investigating the feeling of the people in regard to building the same. He is well pleased with the routes, thinks the grades will be easy, and on the whole finds the situation much better than he anticipated. The people are anxious to have the railroad, and share in such a grand enterprise. They are disposed to aid it in every possible way, to the extent of their ability; and longer will they be contented to let it pass, and will enter heartily into negotiations with the company.

Just where the road will be located will depend on the best route that can be had, and how much interest the people will take in it.

So soon as Mr. Booth, Chief Engineer, arrives, Mr. Spaulding will take him and other members of the committee to the line, over the lines and make preliminary examinations, after which surveying will begin.

A Sentinel- Democrat scribe accompanied Mr. Spaulding on his tour to act as guide, (for Mr. S. had not been at some of the points visited), and he picked up some business and received many courtesies from old and new friends, to all of whom he makes his acknowledgments.—Sentinel- Democrat.

Wanted—A Railroad.

The citizens of Menefee county, Ky., met in Freelandburg on Monday, May 2, 1887, for the purpose of expressing themselves relative to railroad propositions. On motion Judge J. J. Byrne was made Chairman, and Jas. F. Osborn, Secretary.

On motion of Jas. E. Clarke the Chairman appointed a committee to prepare and read a road map representing different companies, consisting of the following: W. S. Pierce, R. M. Vansandell, J. H. Williams, John B. Lyons, and Albert Combs.

The committee retired and reported the following resolution:

Resolved, that any citizens or land owner of this county be requested to open and receive for the purpose of receiving a road map that they may have on their land ready for inspection, and this committee request that the meeting be so directed.

J. H. Williams, Sec'y.

Motioned and carried that these proceedings be forwarded to the Sentinel- Democrat, Mt. Sterling Gazette, THE HERALD and West Liberty Gem for publication.

J. J. BYRNE, Ch'm.

J. F. OSBORN, Sec'y.

Republican Senatorial Convention.

A Convention of the Republican party of the 34th Senatorial District of Kentucky is hereby called to meet in the town of Hazel Green on Saturday June 18th, 1887, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for State Senator to be voted for at the next August election. The basis of representation will be one vote for each 100 votes and one for each fraction of a 100 over 50 votes cast for Blaine and Logan at the November election, 1884. The county chairmen will call the county conventions at such times and places as will best suit the party in the various counties. It is earnestly requested that all the counties send full delegations to the District Convention.

H. C. HENDON, Chairman.

Go to F. N. Day, Hazel Green, A. F. Byrd, Campion, or W. W. Phillips Grassy, for Election Returns, the greatest known remedy for all ills. No cure, no pay.
